Kyle Wesch is the Hydrovac Manager at M.L. Chartier with 17 years of experience in hydrovac and excavation operations. He oversees hydrovac crews and equipment, supporting safe excavation practices and the protection of underground utilities. Kyle's work is rooted in hands-on field experience, with a strong emphasis on operational efficiency, job-site safety, and practical problem solving. His field-first approach helps ensure hydrovac operations are performed effectively in active and complex work environments.
